

The music of Chris and Daya Devi-Doolin Aka Level Seven transforms and reaches out with energy and harmony. Building on a rhythmical mellow base of syncopative acoustic guitars and brilliant vocals, the Doolin's, Aka Level Seven, soar to glorious heights with their ethereal inspiring sound.

Award winning singer-songwriters Chris and Daya Devi-Doolin custom blend their sound into the musical American soft rock worlds of adult contemporary, positive pop, and acoustic music... but don't categorize them, their music transcends traditional labeling. It is rich in percussive expressiveness and layered harmony. It has roots in the past but branches out into a creative mixture that is unique and dynamic.

Audiences identify with this warm and vibrant duo, whose songs reflect the aspirations and triumphs of everyday life. Chris and Daya draw from a diverse background of personal experience and musical style to choose the blend of material that they perform.

The Doolins met as street musicians in Philadelphia, where they performed as part of an acoustic funk act. They evolved through folk music, country music and have developed a unique contemporary acoustic/pop sound.

Here are some brief reviews about their music:

"...they, aka Level Seven, possess captivating harmonies. A kind of blissful gentleness permeates their material, yet it is never cloying".

Steve Morse, Boston Globe

"...theirs is a winning performance. Her voice is a warm gravelly alto, his a soft tenor."
Thomas Duffy, Orlando Sentinel
